Course overview

Make a difference in the lives of animals with a Certificate II in Animal Studies. You’ll learn about the daily care of animals including feeding, animal hygiene, maintaining clean housing for animals, grooming, and ensuring animal safety.

Your animal patients will be grateful when you rehabilitate them after an injury or illness, prepare them for rehoming or simply give them the extra attention they need. Experience a dynamic and flexible work life, meet like-minded people and learn more about the animal kingdom.

This qualification aims to prepare you for your first step into the animal care and management industry. You’ll learn how to contribute to daily work activities in care shelters, kennels, catteries, and beyond.
