Course overview

Have you finished school but you aren't quite sure of your next step? A Victorian Certificate of Applied Learning (VCAL) will give you the skills, knowledge and professional attributes to make informed decisions about your future. Learn about your potential work or education pathways based on your own interests and strengths.

The VCAL aims to prepare you for employment by equipping you with vital skills that will help you participate in the broader context of your family, community and lifelong journey of learning. These skills will help you make the right vocational choice across a huge range of industry sectors and study pathways. Improve your employability while you discover your passion.

This course is delivered with a combination of online and on campus workshops.
